Celebrate Non-GMO Month 2019!

Down to Earth is committed to supporting the Non-GMO Project, the first independent, third-party certifier in the U.S.A. to verify non-GMO claims by independent testing and verification of practices to avoid misidentification and contamination. Look for the Non-GMO Project Verified Seal issued by the Non-GMO Project. Now in its tenth year, Non-GMO Month is North America's largest celebration of the consumer's right to choose non-GMO. This annual event every October raises consumer awareness about the GMO issue, drives sales of non-GMO products, and supports the brands and retailers that have made a non-GMO commitment.
